

Why Start in Grafton, NH?

Contributed by Site Administrator
Saturday, 20 January 2007
Last Updated Saturday, 20 January 2007

The short answer is because we live here. There are no reasonable options, there is no Verizon POP that supports DSL and no Cable companies have expressed any interest in the area. Satellite and dial-up are just not options for people who want to be able to do business or really communicate online anymore.